Old Business:

-No old business presented today.

New Business:

-Our Treasurer reported that our Association received a check in the amount of $1320.00 from Harbor City Lodge No. 318. This was from the proceeds of our District Travel Voucher Raffle.

-W.: Wade Atchison has reserved the Azan Shrine Pavilion for a Family picnic on April 9, 2022. W.: Atchison would like to make it a District wide picnic. Our Treasurer W.: Randy Klause commented that is the same day as our District Mini-Golf Tournament and it was decided to have the events together along with a cornhole tournament run by W.: Darrell Schmitt. The motion was made by R.H. Jay Rodgers seconded by R.:W.: John Paniccia and approved by the Craft to combine both events. It is a great opportunity to get the Brothers and their Families together and enjoy a great and fun filled day. The costs would be only for food and the lounge to be open. Donations would cover the costs of the event.
